STRAIGHT 'A' STUDENTS AT ARCHBISHOP RUMMEL CELEBRATE WITH LUNCH AT LOCAL RESTAURANT

Twenty-eight students at Archbishop Rummel High School achieved all A's on their second quarter report cards and were treated to lunch at Impastato's Restaurant in Metairie.

"Each quarter we honor our straight 'A' students by taking them to lunch at a local restaurant. The students enjoy the outing and our local restaurants are anxious to join in the students' celebration," said Michael Scalco, principal.

The students were bused to Impastato's Restaurant and had a full course luncheon. Following the meal, they returned to school to continue their classes.

Scalco said this program was established many years ago by the school's Rummel Renaissance program that rewards students for academic successes.

Students who attended the straight 'A' luncheon are as follows:

Seniors – Matthew Fury

Juniors – Andrew Alombro, Michael Aucoin, Christopher Kliebert, Craig Murphy, Adam Struppeck.
