STRAIGHT 'A' STUDENTS AT ARCHBISHOP RUMMEL CELEBRATE WITH LUNCH AT LOCAL RESTAURANT

Thirty students at Archbishop Rummel High School achieved all A's on their third quarter report cards and will be treated to lunch at the Bon Ton Café in downtown New Orleans on Tuesday, April 22.

"Each quarter we honor our straight 'A' students by taking them to lunch at a local restaurant. The students enjoy the outing and our local restaurants are anxious to join in the students' celebration," said Michael Scalco, principal.

The students will be bused to the Bon Ton to have a full course luncheon. Following the meal, they will return to school to continue their classes.

Scalco said this program was established many years ago by the school's Rummel Renaissance program that rewards students for academic successes.

Students who earned straight A's last quarter and will attend the luncheon are as follows:

Seniors – Matthew Fury and Scott Pierce

Juniors – Michael Aucoin, Jared Cockfield, Jacob Diaz, Patrick Fisher, Joseph Imseis, and Michael Kelly.
