Please stand for the prayer.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Let us remember that we are in the Holy Presence of God.

This morning we celebrate the feast of Saint Apollonia. Saint Apollonia was an elderly woman who was persecuted because she was a Christian. One day, she found herself in the midst of an angry crowd that sought out and brutalized every Christian they could find. Saint Apollonia was one of those. When they caught her, the first thing they did was smash out all of her teeth. She was then dragged through Alexandria to the outskirts of the city where they made a huge fire. She was given an opportunity to live if she publicly renounced her faith; however, she remained strong in the face of certain death by fire. Just when her persecutors saw that she would not cooperate, she paused as if to speak. They released her, as if to display in some way that she was about to speak of her own accord. Instead of cursing her God as they demanded, she flung herself into the fire voluntarily.

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of our bishops, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father. Amen.

St. John Baptist de LaSalle...	PRAY FOR US.
Live Jesus in our hearts...	FOREVER,
THANK GOD ALMIGHTY...	I AM A RAIDER.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Please face the flag for the Pledge of Allegiance
