Please stand for the prayer

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit Amen

Let us remember that we are in the Holy Presence of God

William of Bourges was educated by Peter the hermit. He learned from his infancy to despise the folly and emptiness of the riches and grandeur of the world, to abhor its pleasures, and to tremble at its dangers. His only delight was in exercises of piety and in his studies, in which he employed his whole time with indefatigable application. He was made canon of Paris: but he soon took the resolution of abandoning all commerce with the world; and retired into the solitude of Grandmont, where he lived with great regularity in that austere order, till seeing its peace disturbed by a contest which arose between the fathers and lay-brothers, he passed into the Cistercian, then in wonderful odour of sanctity. St. William always reputed himself the last among his brethren. The universal mortification of his senses and passions, laid in him the foundation of an admirable purity of heart, and an extraordinary gift of prayer; in which he received great heavenly lights, and tasted of the sweets which God has reserved for those to whom he is pleased to communicate himself.

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer You my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of our bishops, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Amen.

Saint John Baptist de La Salle....Pray for us

Live Jesus in our hearts...Forever

Thank God Almighty...I'm a Raider

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit Amen

Please face the flag for the Pledge of Allegiance
