

Theatre Review

Name _____ Date _____

Genesians attending an outside performance with the club may earn .5 Thespian points if a review of the performance is completed within a week. The review must contain the following components to earn this credit:

Component	Completed
Review is typed.
Review has a title that clearly tells the reviewer's overall impression of the show.
Review has at least 3 sentences dedicated to a short synopsis of the plot, without giving away the ending.
Review points out at least 2 actors and describes their portrayal of their characters and whether or not their portrayals were effective.
Review selects at least one actor whose performance stood out from the rest of the cast and gives a detailed example of when this performer specifically stood out in the show.
Review points out strengths and/or weaknesses of the direction and/or choreography and how these strengths/weaknesses add to/distract from the story.
Review points out strengths and/or weakness of at least two different technical components (set, costumes, makeup, lighting, sound, or special effects) and how these strengths/weaknesses add to/distract from the story.
Review gives an overall impression of the performance, clearly stating whether or not the reviewer would recommend this performance to their readers.
Reviewer has organized each of these separate sections into paragraph format.
Review is mostly free of grammar, usage, and spelling errors.
The review incorporates into any of these sections commentary or notable analysis on the piece that was discussed during a talkback.

*Please print this form and turn in stapled to the front of your review.